As all of you know by now, our dear friend, neighbor and volunteer passed away.

While visiting with Irma Kiley's daughter, Nancy, she shared with me a poem she found in Irma's possession. It describes the way Irma would want us to "go on".

You can shed tears that she is gone, or you can smile because she has lived.

You can close your eyes and pray that she'll come back or you can open your eyes and see all she's left.

Your heart can be empty because you can't see her, or you can be full of the love you shared.

You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday, or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.

You can remember her and only that she's gone, or you can cherish her memory and let it live on.

*You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back, or you can do what she'd want: SMILE, OPEN YOUR EYES, LOVE AND GO ON.

Irma, we will smile, open our eyes and go on!

In Irma's honor and memory, the Glenbrooke Library will now be named THE IRMA KILEY LIBRARY

Our deepest sympathy goes out to the family of Irma Kiley.

She will be missed by all of us.

SINCERELY, YOUR GLENBROOKE FAMILY
